

Hundreds in Existence Between 1700 and 1800:

New Castle County

- A. Brandywine
- B. Christiana
- C. Mill Creek
- D. Wilmington
- E. White Clay Creek
- F. New Castle
- G. Pencader
- H. Red Lion
- I. St. Georges
- J. Appoquinimink

Sussex County

- P. Cedar Creek
- Q. Northwest Fork
- R. Broadkill (Broadkill)
- S. Lewes & Rehoboth
- T. Nanticoke
- U. Indian River
- V. Dagsboro
- W. Broad Creek
- X. Little Creek
- Y. Baltimore

Kent County

- K. Duck
- L. Little Creek
- M. St. Jones
- N. Murderkill
- O. Mispillion

A greater part of Northwest Fork, Nanticoke, and the southern part of Broadkill, along with portions of Indian River, Baltimore, Dagsboro, Broad Creek and Little Creek were claimed by Lord Baltimore. Claims not settled until the running of the Mason-Dixon Line in 1767.